GENERAL LEV PRCHALA

XAAZ-32239

1. The attached copy of a clipping from the Paris CONFIDENTIAL DAILY MAIL of 17 August 1950, has been reported. This clipping reports the signing of an agreement on 4 August 1950 at Munich between General PRCHALA, the emigre Czech rightist, and Dr. Rudolf Lodzian von HILF, a Sudeten-German leader, with regard to the return of Sudeten-Germans to the Sudeten region of Czechoslovakia after liberation.

2. An effort shall be made to ascertain the reaction of the various Czech leaders in Paris to this development. You will recall that NOVAKOVA of HILFKA'S group has been discussing informally with Germans the Sudeten question. The clipping, you will note, states that "Boen offers support."
